

We speak your language

EVS Translations

Your full-service provider for outstanding translations – worldwide

One of Europe's leading translation providers

- EVS Translations sets the benchmark when it comes to providing superior translations in every language.
- In addition to its UK office in Nottingham, the company has offices in Frankfurt, Berlin, Cologne and Munich, with other European branches located in Bulgaria and Ukraine.
- EVS Translations employs more than 40 native-speaker translators and project managers, who are responsible for coordinating over 1,350 freelance translators worldwide.

Peerless translation expertise in many sectors

- As a leading European provider of language services, EVS Translations has established an impressive reputation as a supplier of outstanding translations for numerous key sectors.
- Thanks to our in-depth expertise, EVS Translations is a preferred partner to leading companies and institutions from the financial, legal, automotive, engineering and construction sectors. Added to this are well-known names from the medical, pharmaceutical and chemicals industries. Our customer base also includes major advertising agencies and publishing companies and is rounded out by key players from the IT, telecommunications, energy and environmental sectors.

Handling the entire spectrum of advertising, marketing and sales material for its customers

- EVS Translations meets the very highest standards. The quality we deliver reflects not only the care we take in ensuring the accurate rendition of specialised terminology, but also our ability to get to the heart of even the most complex content and clearly articulate it in a fluent style.
- EVS Translations has the expertise to handle the full range of texts associated with each sector. Our translation services cover annual reports, contracts, technical documentation, construction documentation, manuals, drug trial reports as well as advertisements and novels.

Top quality doesn't happen by chance

- Our translators, who are highly qualified both linguistically and technically, translate exclusively into their native language and deliver first-class translations.
- The project manager guarantees ongoing quality assurance, optimum cooperation and ensures that projects are handled quickly and efficiently.

EVS Translations speaks your language

- We use company-specific terminology databases along with multi-language glossaries to ensure that all terminology is accurately and consistently applied.
- For financial documentation, we maintain one of the largest IFRS/IAS/HGB terminology databases of its kind.

IT Service for all translation processes

- Our IT specialists have extensive experience of working with the full range of translation tools (Trados, Transit, SDLX etc.) and formats. They can also develop customised formatting and data processing solutions.

Fast, punctual and confidential

- No matter how tight your deadline and no matter how many languages you require, EVS Translations guarantees that your project is delivered on time – every time.
- Naturally, all data and information received by EVS Translations is handled with the strictest confidence in line with the legal obligations that apply to authorised translators.

EVS

